

Right: Closet full of future columnists. FRONT ROW L-R: John Lindsay, Jon Wright, Donn Waage. SECOND ROW. Cheryl Vieregge, Andrea Hine, Pam Fortin, Barbara Brownawell. THIRD ROW: Ann Schimschock, Jane Cavanagh, Pixie Martin, Darien Barth, John Slothower. FOURTH ROW: Rob Hare, Nelson King, Cal Simmons, Mike Haedike. AROUND CLOSET: Mr. Freeberg, Rick O'Fallon, Neal Sorensen.

WAYZATAN EXPRESSES VIEWS AND DEEDS OF STUDENTS

Wayzatan "Execs.": Mr. Freeberg, Pam Fortin, John Slothower, and Nelson King.

Neal Sorensen, Editor-in-Chief, and Mrs. Freeberg worked to make the Wayzatan interesting and enlightening for all its subscribers. Many controversial articles, often written by Editorial Chief, Andrea Hine, were published in the paper this year. An amusing cartoon depicting a school issue could be found in every edition. One of the most unique articles was an interview with Louis Armstrong by Pam Fortin, Feature Editor. John Slothower covered the sports and Jane Cavanagh acted as Business Manager.

"Growing" new ideas for the paper. Neal Sorensen and Jane Cavanagh.

"Satchmo." Pam Fortin interviews Louis Armstrong.