Row 1—B. Elwell, D. McDonald, T. Hawthorne, D. Storms, Row 2—M. Hahn, C. Utz, L. Stemmer, A. Helsey, H. Shallman, S. Betker. Row 3—D. McDermott, J. Wicklatz, D. Burch, D. Clark.

Entertainment committee? Kay Stender and Lois Thwing infiltrated from Y-Teens; Dan MacDonald, president and Tim Hawthorne

Working for Goodwill Industries and selling Y's Men Christmas trees filled a lot of Hi-Y's time this year. Affiliated with the YMCA Club in Minneapolis, Hi-Yers put its facilities to good use, the most enjoyable of which were socials or joints with Y-Teens girls from other schools.

Math Club Crammed For Contest

L-R. F. Strobl, Mr. Jandro, M. Ritter, Mr. Campbell, M. Lewis, G. Skinner, Mr. Newcomb, T. Martin, Mr. Nelson, J. Walton, S. Betker, D. Burch, D. Grise, B. Eggers, Miss Sausen, C. Bakk, G. Carlston.

If you asked a Math Club member what the Math Club does, he'd probably answer in Fortran (the official language of the computers) or start explaining the Fibonacci sequence (it has something to do with rabbits). Under the leadership of president, Mark Ritter and the guidance of the math department faculty, members had their minds on the intricacies of higher math and holding study sessions for the National Math Contest. They also made plans for a spring math meet with the top math students from several schools competing.
